Scanner Reports 7-8-15

updated: Jul 08, 2015, 7:00 AM

Roger the Scanner Guy

Wednesday Wednesday. Wondering if we are going to start having water wars over use of too much water during the drought. I heard a call the other day about a disagreement over the use of water for gardening on West Constance. There's a lot of people out there that don't care about saving water and they are not trying to do so. I don't know, but don't think it was the case here. I think there are people out there that choose keeping their lawn, or garden over other things like showering for a long time, or washing more than a load of clothing a week. I don't have much of a garden myself, just a couple of Belinda's plants in pots and I use excess bottled water on them because I drink bottled water myself. Joey Canolli too, of course. That water comes from here too but tastes much better than the faucet water. The Mid West is getting all the rain, not us. Someday we might just dry up and blow away.

Our crazy world the military is stepping in to patrol the streets of Chicago after the Mayor requested their presence after a violent weekend of shootings; 82 wounded, 15 dead. It not only sounds like a war zone, it is a war zone. Two murders on the same block in a 24 hour period in Hammond, (my home town) last week. Don't think it can never happen here because it could happen anywhere. It's unlikely to happen here at this period of time but it can. A few years back I listened to Scanner Feed from Hammond and Santa Barbara at the same time over a 4 hour period on a Saturday afternoon. There was a lot more theft calls here than there. For some reason not a lot of violence that day in Hammond. Pretty quiet, but a lot of theft.

That is one thing we have a lot of here; opportunist thefts. I just heard one over on Mason and Milpas a woman in a wheelchair got her camping gear ripped off. I assume she's homeless. Why else would she be lugging around camping gear? What a cold blooded thing to do rip off a homeless handicapped person but that is what life is coming to in this country. It might have happened 20 years ago but was less likely compared to now. Now a lot of people are going bonkers no one seems to care as much as they did way back when it's not just here it's everywhere. When you tell someone about a horrible incident like a handicapped person getting ripped off they usually say something like, "It's happening everywhere." That is somehow supposed to make it OK.

I remembering hearing about an injury motorcycle accident years ago, maybe 20 years ago. I think it was on Castillo, a couple was injured and someone came along and ripped off the man's wallet. That stuff did not happen around here much; it was shocking. It happens in places like Chicago all the time, probably since the beginning of time. But Chicago is a much bigger place. Interesting thought; do you think we will see the Military take over the duties of Police Officers in our Life Time? Do you think that someday the Military, not the Police will patrol our streets? I wonder. What do you think? Just a couple thoughts from a twisted old mind.

I don't really understand why our society gets so bent out of shape when they see an exposed boob. The ban on showing nipples at the beach needs to be lifted. It's no big deal in Europe, why should we call the cops on a lady for being as topless as men can be? It's not even a sexual organ, they're mammary glands, designed to feed babies!

Hmmm. Good questions. I think I have already seen the military take over police jobs...too many times to keep track of.

Roger do you know if it is illegal for a neighbor to use a reciprocating saw to remove a no parking sign located in front of their house?

If it's a city sign it is..

It was a city sign. They cut it off when they did construction on their house and they had tons of construction trucks parking in the no parking zone. now they conveniently park in the no parking zone... (there's no parking anywhere on the street)

I tried to post a question on Edhat about it and they said "parking issues have been discussed. look at previous items on santa barbara's edhat" and told me I could Op Ed it if I edited it.

If it was a city sign it's destruction of city property you should call the police on their non emergency number..It might still be 897-2300..Give them a call..

I still see a lot of people in my neighbor hood still washing there cars and leaving the water running for a good half hour !! I would say there's about 8 on my side of the street alone that I see. I tried to jokingly tell them about the water (I don't speak their language) and two days later my radiator was drained and two tires were slashed. And life goes on..... Oh yeah " Free the nipple"

Funny the chicken feed things people do to you to mess up your life or try and get you in trouble when they are mad at you or dislike you.. Of course they will never meet you face to face just stab you in the back a lot of that here. Oh well that's them not me or you a few others..If you should be around tomorrow park down the street or next door we got people coming if you know what I mean..

I enjoy reading the scanner reports sometimes, but it sure gives a good picture of how many troubled people are around unable to care for themselves. Also, I wonder what the codes mean, such as "242", "259". Is there a place I can look them up?

ROGER DODGER A H N O

2015-07-09 09:15 AM

I'm sorry when I post sometimes I forget to write the crime after, 242 is Assault, 459 is Burglary, 415 is a disturbance of sorts and can be just about anything.. 415 Fight, 415 Barking dogs, 415 Loud Music...211 Robbery if it's an Armed robbery I usually say Armed Robbery..Or it can be Robbery by intimidation.. Which is a Strongarm Robbery...You can google the code 459 and follow it with pc or penile code and several websites will pop up to explain the crime.

Roger--Speaking of "chicken feed things people do," I'd like to give a shout out to whomever it was who sicced the City of Santa Barbara on me, instead of coming to me and telling me what your real issue is. What happened to people being grownup and civil and upfront? As soon as the case is closed, I will know who you are. Meanwhile:

A completely chicken feed and douchebaggy thing to do.
